RE: Speaking Invitation
Chicago Crime Commission
Chicago, Illinois
28 October 1988

President of the Chicago Crime Commission, Wesley Walton, has invited you to address their annual luncheon on Friday, 28 October in Chicago. You could expect an audience of 300 - 350 representatives from the business and law enforcement communities. You recently declined their invitation to speak at their 9 June luncheon. (See opposite.)

You will be addressing two groups in Chicago in June and may not wish to return to the podium in that city in October. I recommend that you decline this invitation and attached is a letter of regret for your signature.

Dear Mr. Walton:

I appreciate your invitation to address the Chicago Crime Commission's annual luncheon on October 28th. Unfortunately, I cannot make a commitment to you at this time, and I know you must select a speaker. Thank you for asking me to address your group. I have always believed in the importance of citizen support for law enforcement work.

Best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ William H. Webster

Dear Mr. Webster:

Thank you for your prompt response to our invitation to speak before the Crime Commission's membership on June 9th. We are indeed sorry that you are unavailable that day but, we are determined to get you here at some point soon.

Since you last spoke before the Commission in 1978, your following here has paralleled the dramatic rise in your career. You are held in great regard.

On October 28, 1988, the Crime Commission will host its Annual Luncheon before a large crowd of Chicagoland's business and law enforcement community. This forum traditionally features some of the nation's most distinguished leaders addressing the provocative issues of our time. I can assure you a most receptive audience.

I would be delighted to hear as soon as possible that you will be our Guest Speaker on October 28. Every consideration will be made to guarantee that your visit is a pleasant one.

Sincerely,

Wesley S. Walton

RE: Speaking Invitation
Chicago Crime Commission
Chicago, Illinois
9 June 1988

Executive Director of the Chicago Crime Commission, Patrick Healy, has invited you to address the Chicago Crime Commission's Membership luncheon meeting on Thursday, 9 June. The proposed format is 20 minutes of remarks followed by 10 minutes of questions and answers. Suggested remarks are the future of international business abroad or any other topic of your choice. You could expect an audience of approximately 300 - 350 business leaders whose companies have international contacts. According to Mr. Healy, you addressed the Crime Commission in October 1978 when you were Director of the FBI. You also received an invitation from this group in 1987, but declined it due to your pending confirmation as Director of CIA.

The Chicago Crime Commission is a nonprofit civic organization with a membership of 400 leading businessmen.

Since you are already committed to address the Arkansas Bar Association in Hot Springs on that date, I have prepared a letter of regret for your signature.

Dear Mr. Healy:

Many thanks for your kind invitation to address the Chicago Crime Commission's Membership meeting on June 9th. Although it would please me very much to speak to your group, I have already accepted another speaking engagement and so must decline. It was good of you to think of me.

I wish you a successful meeting. Please give your members my regards.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

December 11, 1987

The Honorable William H. Webster
Director
The Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Director:

We cordially extend an invitation to you to address the Chicago Crime Commission's Membership meeting on April 14, 1988, on a topic of your choice. You previously had occasion to address the Crime Commission in your capacity as Director of the F.B.I. and our members found your presentation quite informative.

As you probably are aware, the membership of the Commission is comprised of prominent Chicago and suburban business leaders, most of whose companies have international contacts and therefore, a presentation along those lines and what they may expect in the future, would be quite appropriate. However, we do leave the choice up to you.

We would expect 300 to 350 business leaders to attend. We are somewhat flexible on the date if that poses a problem. I can assure you that your presentation will be very well received.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, we would be pleased to answer them.

Sincerely,

changed to 9 June
